Re: Kaloma Cardwell v. Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP
Case No. 10190523

Enclosed is a copy of a verified complaint filed with the Division of Human Rights against you. This complaint, which alleges an unlawful discriminatory practice in violation of the New York State Human Rights Law, is being served upon you pursuant to Section 297.2 of the Human Rights Law (N.Y. Exec. Law, art. 15).

Please submit a response in duplicate to each and every allegation in the complaint, complete the enclosed Respondent Information Sheet, and return the response and Information Sheet to the Division, at the address below, within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of this letter. The Division will not extend the time for this response, unless good cause is shown in a written application, submitted at least five (5) calendar days prior to the time the response is due. Failure to respond could result in an adverse finding against you, which would be shared with, among others, the Secretary of State and the applicable State licensing agencies that govern your business.

The Human Rights Law prohibits retaliation against any person because he or she has opposed discriminatory practices, filed a discrimination complaint, or participated in any proceeding before the Division. Human Rights Law § 296.7.

Anyone who willfully resists, prevents, impedes or interferes with the Division's investigation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment, by fine, or by both. Human Rights Law § 299.

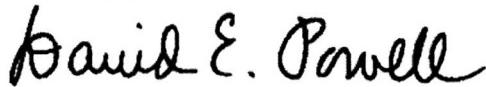

As the enclosed information sheet provides, the Division will conduct a prompt investigation, based on the complaint and your response, which may include interviews with your representatives and the collection of documents. The Division expects your full cooperation in this investigation. After the investigation is completed, the Division will make a determination as to whether there is probable cause to believe that unlawful discrimination has occurred. You will be notified of this determination.

Protection of personal privacy: In most cases, you will be expected to submit documents in support of your response to the complaint. The Division observes a personal privacy protection policy consistent with Human Rights Law § 297.8 which governs what information the Division may disclose, and the N.Y. Public Officer's Law § 89 and § 96-a, which prohibit disclosure of social security numbers and limit further disclosure of certain information subject to personal privacy protection. Please redact or remove personal information from any documentation submitted to the Division, unless and until the Division specifically requests any personal information needed for the investigation. The following information should be redacted: the first five digits of social security numbers; dates of birth; home addresses and home telephone numbers; any other information of a personal nature. The following documentation should not be submitted unless specifically requested by the Division: medical records; credit histories; resumes and employment histories. The Division may return your documents if they contain personal information that was not specifically requested by the Division. If you believe that inclusion of any such personal information is necessary to your response, please contact me to discuss before submitting such information.

If you have any questions about the process generally, or how to submit your response, please call me at (212) 961-8650.

Very truly yours,

David E. Powell
Regional Director

NOTICE OF CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATION WHERE AN FEP AGENCY WILL INITIALLY PROCESS

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT A CHARGE OF EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION UNDER

- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
 The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (ADEA)
 The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

HAS BEEN RECEIVED BY: The New York State Division of Human Rights (FEP Agency) and sent to the EEOC for dual filing purposes.

While the EEOC has jurisdiction (upon expiration of any deferral requirements if this is a Title VII or ADA charge) to investigate this charge, EEOC may refrain from beginning an investigation and await the issuance of the FEP Agency's final findings and orders. These final findings and orders will be given weight by EEOC in making its own determination as to whether or not reasonable cause exists to believe that the allegations made in the charge are true.

You are therefore encouraged to cooperate fully with the FEP Agency. All facts and evidence provided by you to the Agency in the course of its proceedings will be considered by the Commission when it reviews the Agency's final findings and orders. In many instances the Commission will take no further action, thereby avoiding the necessity of an investigation by both the FEP Agency and the Commission. This likelihood is increased by your active cooperation with the Agency.

As a party to the charge, you may request that EEOC review the final decision and order of the above named FEP Agency. For such a request to be honored, you must notify the Commission in writing within 15 days of your receipt of the Agency's issuing a final finding and order. If the Agency terminates its proceedings without issuing a final finding and order, you will be contacted further by the Commission.

For further correspondence on this matter, please use the charge number(s) shown.

An Equal Pay Act investigation (29 U.S.C. §206(d)) will be conducted by the Commission concurrently with the FEP Agency's investigation of the charge.
